

I.R.C.P. 84.n. Effect of Failure to Comply with Time Limits.

Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 84(n). Effect of Failure to Comply with Time Limits.

The failure to physically file a petition for judicial review or cross-petition for judicial review with the district court within the time limits prescribed by statute and these rules shall be jurisdictional and shall cause automatic dismissal of the petition for judicial review upon motion of any party, or upon initiative of the district court. Failure of a party to timely take any other step in the process for judicial review shall not be deemed jurisdictional, but may be grounds only for such other action or sanction as the district court deems appropriate, which may include dismissal of the petition for review.
